Larrosa&Co Properties presents its new development in one of the best locations in Guardamar del Segura, next to the pine forest and just a short distance from the sea. A privileged environment that combines nature, tranquillity and proximity to all services. The building features 10 exclusive residences, with only two apartments per floor, all of them with 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms. Designed as luxury apartments, they stand out for their high-quality construction, meticulous layout and excellent natural light entry, offering the perfect balance between comfort and functionality. The residences located on the third and fourth floors also enjoy sea views, adding a unique added value, and include a parking. (Ask for More Details)
