Discover an exclusive new construction project in Pilar de la Horadada, crafted to redefine luxury and comfort. This villa development, set for completion in 2023, offers an exceptional lifestyle in a prime location.

The villas boast meticulous attention to detail and high-quality finishes. Each unit features spacious and bright areas, with large windows seamlessly connecting indoor and outdoor spaces. The modern American-style kitchens are fully equipped, while the living and dining areas provide an elegant and welcoming atmosphere.

Outside, you'll find expansive terraces, private gardens, and in many units, private pools. These
