Located in the tranquil and sought-after Fanadix area of Benissa, this villa offers complete privacy and stunning open sea views. It's a house with great potential and requires some renovation. A property with authentic Mediterranean style, designed to enjoy the comfort and serenity offered by its privileged location. Spread over two floors, the house stands out for its spacious and well-connected rooms. The ground floor comprises two bedrooms and a full bathroom. An internal staircase leads to the upper (main) floor, where light and sea views take center stage. Here, a welcoming dining room with a fireplace opens onto a glazed terrace, ideal for enjoying the scenery and sea views. (Ask for More Details)
