In the heart of the Vega Baja, in a peaceful and excellently connected environment, an exclusive set of detached homes arises that embody the essence of the Mediterranean lifestyle. Located in the charming town of Dolores, these residences of contemporary architecture combine elegance, comfort, and functionality, offering an ideal place both to live year-round and to enjoy as a second home.

Each home is set on private plots of up to 205 m², with generous outdoor spaces designed to make the most of each day. Private gardens, covered and uncovered terraces harmoniously integrate with the surroundings, inviting you to enjoy outdoor living throughout the four seasons. The main entrance
