Explore the luxurious independent villas at the latest addition to the Serendipia range, situated in the area of Torrepacheco. These newly remodeled, single-level villas boast large plots and enhanced living spaces, adorned with exquisite stone detailing. These contemporary three-bedroom residences offer front parking, feature stunning stone walls, and include a private rear pool, a spacious rooftop solarium, and a storage room.

The introduction of the I, II, and III phases of this collection brings a chic redesign and a private pool to the coveted coastal locale. Each villa is thoughtfully designed on a single level, employing a raised ceiling in the kitchen area, complemented by an expansive wrap-around terrace and
